Calf Raises

This exercise mainly works out the Gastrocnemius and the Soleus.

Standing on a block, lift your heels by contracting the calf muscles to rise as high as you can on the ball of your feet. Hold the position for a second, flexing your calf muscles, then lower your heels back to starting position.