

Interprofessional education is a resource-intensive initiative which requires a collaborative effort among various stakeholders. We would like to thank the following sponsors for their contribution in supporting team-based education for health professional students.

2016	2017	2018	2019
   	  	   	