

GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

- PHYSICIANS, DENTISTS, NURSES, AND ALLIED HEALTH PROFESSIONALS
ARE TRAINED IN LSU HSCD HOSPITALS -

The LSU hospitals have long maintained the dual mission of indigent care and health care education. The hospitals are the principal training sites of the State's institutions engaged in Graduate Medical Education, and they also support a wide variety of Nursing and Allied Health Programs. Educational programs located throughout the State are affiliated with one of the ten LSU hospitals.
