

Things to Remember in your search:

1. Pay attention to the year listed in your citation and the year(s) the Library has available for use.
2. Look for possible “Print Holdings” in the Library Catalog.
3. Remember that an embargo (publisher restriction) on certain journals is possible!
4. If you get stuck - Do not hesitate to ask for help!

I've Done My Search – Now What?

A How-To-Guide on Finding Full-Text Articles

LIBRARY HOMEPAGE URL: <http://www.lsuhschool.edu/no/library>

Options for finding Full-Text: Using Library Online Resources such as PubMed or EBSCOhost to find articles

Step 1: If there is a PDF symbol or the words “Full-Text” Click on the link. And that’s it!

Step 2: If there isn’t a link, then click on “Check the Library Catalog for holdings.”

- If the link works, a record in the Library’s catalog will appear.
- Check the year and electronic/print availability against your citation.

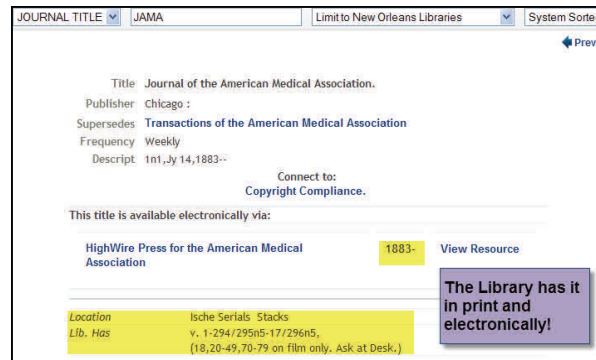

If the “Check Holdings” link doesn’t work or says No Results, continue

Step 3: Open a new browser tab or window and go to the Library Homepage. Select the following:

- Choose “Journal Title” from drop-down menu and pay attention to Library Location limit. Type the name of the journal from the citation and hit SUBMIT.
- If the Library owns the journal the following screen will appear.
- See information in Step 2 to clarify.

If you are unsuccessful, continue reading.

Step 4: Return to the Library Homepage and select the following:

Electronic Journals List: Titles both in INNOPAC and out-of-scope from consortial resources & Tutorial (MMV)

- Type in the name of the journal title and hit search.
- If your title appears (along with the appropriate year), you’re done.

If you are unsuccessful, continue reading.

Step 5: Return to the Library Homepage and select the following:

ILLiad - Interlibrary Loan

- Articles may be ordered from other libraries.
- Articles are delivered electronically, and are usually received within 48 hours.
- First time users must create a profile.
- After creating a profile/logging in, request material by entering the citation
