

This is just one of the many touching stories from Camp Tiger.

Ronald was a young boy with autism who joined us for Camp Tiger. Although it appeared as though he was having a great time at camp, what he thought of his experience remained an uncertainty because Ronald did not respond to anyone verbally. Counselors and other campers would talk and play with Ronald, but Ronald did not say even one word. On the last day of camp, however, just before Ronald went home, he picked up a piece of chalk...

Thank you!

Camp Tiger is made possible by the support of the New Orleans community. All donations are sincerely appreciated and directly affect the success of the camp. Please donate to the Camp Tiger Benefit Auction to make this year's camp a life-changing experience for all of the campers involved.

Your donation is tax-deductible and deeply appreciated.

7:00-11:00 pm

All money raised at the Camp Tiger Auction will go towards funding Camp Tiger, a week-long summer camp put on by LSUHSC first year medical students for children with special health care needs.

WHAT IS CAMP TIGER?

Camp Tiger is a week-long day camp for special needs children from the New Orleans area. The camp is free of charge for campers and is staffed by the first-year medical students of LSU-HSC New Orleans. Campers spend the week seeing the sights and scenes of New Orleans with breakfast and lunch provided for them.

Past Camp Tiger Activities:

Audubon Zoo
Aquarium of the Americas
Louisiana Children's Museum
Global Wildlife Center
Saints Training Facility
LSU Practice Facility
City Park

DONATIONS

The special needs children of New Orleans need you!

Camp Tiger is an amazing experience for its campers. Special needs children are able to visit many places that they may not have been able to visit without this wonderful, free-of-charge camp just for them. Unfortunately, making this camp a reality is expensive. Taking on the task of giving over 150 special needs children a week of fun requires transportation, events and activities, food, drinks, and general medical supplies.
