

LSU Health Sciences Center in New Orleans
FACULTY SENATE CONSTITUTION

Preamble

The faculty of the Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center in New Orleans (LSUHSC-NO), within applicable laws and policies of the Chancellor of the LSUHSC-NO, the President of the LSU System, and the Board of Supervisors of the Louisiana State University and A & M College, do hereby effect through this Constitution the Faculty Senate of the LSUHSC-NO.

Article I. Name.

Section 1. This organization shall be known as the Faculty Senate of the LSUHSC-NO, hereinafter referred to as the Senate.

Article II. Purpose.

Section 1. To serve as a representative voice of the faculty.

Section 2. To provide a means of communication between the faculty and the Chancellor and the Administration staff of the LSUHSC-NO.

- A. The Faculty Senate, subject to the powers vested in the Chancellor of LSUHSC-NO, shall:
 - (i) consider and make recommendations concerning all matters of general interest, as distinguished from those affecting a single school;
 - (ii) review and approve all changes in existing policies or the establishment of new policies relating to matters of general LSUHSC-NO interest when these policies are brought to the Senate for consideration by the Chancellor of LSUHSC-NO or by its own members or constituencies;
 - iii) consider and make recommendations on any matters referred to it by the Chancellor of LSUHSC-NO or by its own members or constituencies.
- B. Any recognized group within the LSUHSC-NO community shall possess the privilege of presenting suggestions or raising problems for consideration by the Faculty Senate or by any of the standing committees of the Senate. The "LSUHSC-NO community" shall mean those eligible for membership in the Senate as individuals, as well as, groups whose members are all eligible for membership in the Senate.

Section 3. To accept and share responsibility with administration and students in all efforts to improve the stature and to accomplish the mission of the Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center-New Orleans.

Section 4. To communicate with the faculty assemblies of the Schools of Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing, Allied Health Sciences, Graduate Studies and Public Health at LSUHSC-NO.

Section 5. To communicate with the faculty senates of the other colleges and universities within the State of Louisiana.

Article III. Jurisdiction.

Section 1. The Senate may hear, consider, and advise the Chancellor of the LSUHSC-NO and his administration on any matter of concern.

Section 2. The Senate, upon its request, may be furnished by the Chancellor of the LSUHSC-NO information appropriate to its consideration in such a matter.

Article IV. Membership and Term of Office.

Section 1. Members of the Senate shall be selected/elected by the respective Faculty Organizations by

52 whatever procedure they approve, provided that such procedure yields Delegates who comply with 53 faculty representation as set forth in this Constitution and Bylaws.
54 Section 2. For purposes of selecting Senators, eligible faculty are those full-time faculty with academic rank
55 of Instructor or above as defined by the schools, excluding those administrators, deans, department 56 heads, and any others whose functions are primarily administrative.
57 Section 3. Membership in the Senate shall be determined by proportional representation, in accordance with 58 the formula provided in the Bylaws.
59 Section 4. A Senator may be recalled, as determined by the respective Faculty Organization bylaws.
60 Section 5. The term of office of a Senator shall be three academic years, commencing at the first Senate
61 meeting following his/her election.
62 Section 6. Senators are eligible to serve no more than two consecutive terms. [Senators elected to an initial 63 one or two-year partial terms shall be eligible to succeed themselves at the conclusion of their initial 64 term for one additional term.]
65 Section 7. Approximately one-third of the members of the Senate shall be elected each year. The terms of 66 office shall be staggered.
67 Section 8. The Senate shall be the sole judge of the qualifications of its members and shall have the power
68 to review any contested election.
69

70 Article V. Meetings.

71 Section 1. The Senate shall meet in regular monthly sessions.
72 Section 2. Special meetings of the Senate may be called as stipulated in the Bylaws.
73 Section 3. Rules governing the conduct of regular and special meetings shall be as stipulated in the Bylaws.
74

75 Article VI. Officers.

76 Section 1. All officers of the Senate shall be elected members of the Senate.
77 Section 2. Officers of the Senate shall be the President, the President-elect, the Secretary, an elected Faculty
78 Representative (see Article VIII, section 2), and an Alternate Faculty Representative.
79 Section 3. The officers of the Senate shall be elected in accordance with the Bylaws.
80 Section 4. The officers of the Senate shall discharge their duties as stipulated in the Bylaws.
81

82 Article VII. Executive Committee.

83
84 Section 1. The Executive Committee of the Senate shall consist of the President, the Past President (ex-85 officio), President-elect, Secretary, and the Faculty Representatives to the LSU System.
86 Section 2. The duties and responsibilities of the Executive Committee shall be as stipulated in the Bylaws.
87

88 Article VIII. Elections.

89 Section 1. Members of the Senate shall be selected during the first half of June of each year by such means
90 as the respective faculty assemblies vote to approve.
91 Section 2. Officers of the Senate shall be elected by secret ballot at the June meeting of the Faculty Senate
92 as the first order of business.
93 Section 3. Two Faculty Representatives to the LSU System will be elected by the Senate to serve two-year
94 terms (with their terms staggered if possible). The Representatives may be a senator or a past
95 senator, but should by definition be eligible for election to their respective faculty assemblies. The 96 maximum service period of the Representatives shall be two consecutive terms. It is encouraged
97 that these offices of the Senate will rotate among the various Schools representing LSUHSC-NO.
98 Section 4. If a senator in the second year of their current term is elected to the office of President-elect, then
99 the term of that senator shall be extended to include a 4th year during which they, as President, will
100 serve as member-at-large. When the President becomes a member at large, his/her original senate
101 seat will become vacant, at which time the respective faculty assembly will elect a new senator to 102 serve a 3-year term as stipulated in the By-Laws. Should the President-elect senator be re-elected to 103 a second 3-year term in the Senate by their respective faculty assembly, that senator will serve as

104 President during the first year of their second term and the term will not be extended beyond 3
105 years.

106
107
108 Article IX. Committees.

- 109 Section 1. The standing committees of the Senate shall be:
- 110 A. Professional Rights, Responsibilities and Faculty Welfare Committee
 - 111 B. Research Committee
 - 112 C. Education, Service, and Patient Care Committee
 - 113 D. Constitution, Bylaws, Resolutions, Nominations and Elections Committee
 - 114 E. Facilities, Safety, and Security Committee
 - 115 F. Electronic Communication Committee
 - 116 G. Committee Coordinating Committee

- 117
118 Section 2. Standing committees shall:
- 119 A. Formulate and recommend actions and policies for approval by the Senate.
 - 120 B. Be available to consult and advise the Chancellor and Administration of the LSUHSC-NO.
 - 121 C. Study matters assigned to them by the Senate or the Executive Committee, and consider written 122 requests of faculty.
 - 123 D. Seek factual information and the opinions of interested parties prior to any final action on a 124 matter, and
 - 125 E. Report to the Senate at each regular meeting.

126 Section 3. The functions of the standing committees of the Senate shall be as stipulated in the Bylaws.

127 Section 4. Ad Hoc committees of the Senate may be appointed by the President of the Senate or Chancellor
128 to deal with specific issues as they arise.

129
130 Article X. Amendments.

131 Section 1. Any proposal to amend, alter, or repeal the provisions of this Constitution shall be initially 132 supported by a simple majority vote of the Senate.

133 Section 2. Any such proposal shall be made at least one regular meeting preceding that at which the vote on 134 ratification is taken.

135 Section 3. Proposed amendments shall require ratification by a two-thirds vote of the total Senate.

136 Section 4. The procedure for amendments shall be as stipulated in the Bylaws.

137
138 Article XI. Interpretation.

139 Provisions of this Constitution and Bylaws, whenever unclear, ambiguous, or indefinite, shall be subject to 140 interpretation by a simple majority vote of the total Faculty Senate.

142 LSU Health Sciences Center in New Orleans
143 FACULTY SENATE BYLAWS

144 Article I. Membership.

145 Section 1. Eligibility. Members of the Senate shall be elected from the LSUHSC-NO General Faculty as 146 defined in Article IV of the Constitution.

147 Section 2. Formula for Representation. The Senate shall consist of a total number of 31 members as 148 determined by the following formula:

- 149 A. There will be eight senators from the LSUHSC-NO Faculty Assembly of the School of 150 Medicine, the majority of whom should be from clinical departments. Five senators
151 will be elected by each of the Faculty Organizations of the LSUHSC-NO Schools of 152 Nursing, Allied Health Professions, Dentistry and Public Health. Two senators will 153 be elected by the LSUHSC-NO School of Graduate Studies. One senator will also 154 be elected by the LSUHSC-NO library faculty.
155

156 Section 3. Vacancies. In case of resignation, incapacity, change of status, or irregular attendance of any 157 Senator, the respective Faculty Organization shall be responsible for naming a replacement to serve
158 the term remaining. Irregular attendance shall be defined as failure to attend at least one-half of the 159 regular Senate meetings during any one six-month period.

160 Section 4. Proxy Voting. Any member of the Faculty Senate may designate a member of the full-time
161 faculty from his/her Faculty Organization to serve as his/her alternate at any specific meeting of the 162 Faculty Senate; provided, however, no person may be designated an alternate for more than one
163 absent elected senator and no elected senator may serve as his/her alternate. To designate an 164 alternate a member of the Senate shall execute a proxy form specifying the name of the alternate,
165 the meeting for which the alternate shall represent the absent senator, and certifying that the named
166 alternate is a full-time member of the Faculty Organization. The executed alternate form may be 167 presented to the Secretary prior to roll call or mailed to the Secretary at his/her faculty box at least 168 one week prior to a scheduled meeting.

169 Section 5. Meetings. The President will select a location for meetings of the full Senate.
170

171 Article II. Officers.

172 Section 1. Duties of Officers.

173 1. The President shall

- 174 A. Preside at meetings of the Executive Committee,
175 B. Select the place of meeting of the Senate and notify Senators of any change in regularly
176 designated times and places,
177 C. Preside at meetings of the Senate,
178 D. Appoint the members to the standing committees of the Senate
179 E. Assign each new proposal and/or matter to the appropriate committee of the Senate,
180 F. Be a voting member of the Senate,
181 G. Inform any constituency when it is necessary for it to fill a vacancy in its representation
182 in the Senate,
183 H. State clearly each issue being voted on before the vote is taken and announce to the 184 Senate the results of the vote,
185 I. Appoint a member of the Senate to keep records of any meeting from which the Secretary
186 is absent,
187 J. Appoint ad hoc committees of the Senate subject to the approval of the Executive 188 Committee,
189 K. Transmit to the Chancellor of the LSUHSC-NO all recommendations approved by the 190 Senate,
191 L. Serve as a non-voting member of the Executive Committee for one year following the 192 expiration of his/her term of office.
193 M. Serve or appoint one designate to represent the Senate on the Association of Louisiana

194 Faculty Senates.
195 N. Serve or appoint a designate to represent the senate at the Conference of Louisiana
196 Colleges and Universities.

197 O. Serve as an ex-officio member of the Chancellor's Executive Committee.

198 2. The President-elect shall:

199 A. Serve as a member of the Executive Committee,

200 B. Assume, in the absence of the President, the duties of the President, and 201 C. Become the President should the position become vacant.

202 D. Assume the office of President at the conclusion of the term of the current President.

203 3. The Secretary shall

204 A. Serve as a member of the Executive Committee,

205 B. Keep clear and accurate records of the transactions of the Senate,

206 C. Prepare written Minutes for each Senate meeting for distribution to Senators and guests
207 in order to solicit comments regarding accuracy. Distribute corrected draft to 208 Senators, guests, Chancellor and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs prior to the 209 next Senate meeting.

210 D. Submit a copy of the approved minutes and other official documents of the Senate for 211 archiving by the LSU Health Sciences Center-New Orleans Library within one
212 month after each meeting (Medical and Dental libraries).

213 E. Keep an up-to-date compilation of all Senate Resolutions and the Chancellor's responses
214 to these resolutions,

215 F. Preside, in the absence of the President and President-elect, at meetings of the Senate
216 long enough to allow for the election of a temporary chairperson for that meeting,

217 G. Carry on any necessary correspondence of the Senate,

218 H. Tabulate and record the results of all votes of the Senate,

219 I. Keep a current list of the members of the Senate,

220 J. Record the names of the members present at each meeting of the Senate 241 and inform 221 the President when excessive absences occur,

222 K. Distribute an agenda for the Senate meetings at least 4 days before the meeting, and 223 L. Keep clear and concise minutes of the meetings of the Executive Committee.

224 4. The Faculty Representatives shall:

225 A. Report to the Senate on issues being considered by the Board of Supervisors, particularly 226 those that will have an effect on LSUHSC-NO.

227 B. Serve as the faculty's representative to the LSU System Council of Faculty Advisors and 228 report to the Senate on relevant developments and proceedings.

229 C. Provide this information in summary form so that it can be disseminated to the presiding
230 officers of each Faculty Assembly of the Health Sciences Center.

231 Section 2. Term of Office. The term of office for the senate President, President-elect, and Secretary shall 232 be for one twelve (12) month period, running from July 1 (beginning of the school fiscal year 233 following the June election). The term of office for the Faculty Representatives to the Council of 234 Faculty Advisors shall be two years. The Secretary and Faculty Representatives may serve two 235 consecutive terms.

236
237 Article III. Executive Committee.

238 Section 1. Meetings. The Executive Committee shall confer prior to each regular meeting of the Senate
239 and prepare an agenda for that meeting.

240 Section 2. Duties. The Executive Committee shall

241 A. Make certain that any proposal submitted by a Senator shall be considered by the Senate, 242 B. Distribute an agenda to all Senators at least five days prior to all regular meetings of the 243 Senate, and

244 C. Prepare a yearly calendar of meetings of the Senate, stipulating the deadlines for 245 submitting proposals to be included in the agendas.

Article IV. Elections.

Section 1. Election of Officers. The Nominations and Elections Committee shall at the May meeting of the Senate, submit at least one name for each office of the Senate except for the office of President, and thereafter other nominations may be called for from the floor. The vote for Officers of the Senate shall be taken at the June meeting of the Faculty Senate in accordance with Article VIII Section 2 of the Constitution. In the event that an elected officer other than the President leaves office more than three meetings prior to the scheduled end of their term, the members of the Senate will be notified of the vacancy, nominations for a replacement will be solicited at the next regular meeting of the Senate, and a replacement will be elected at the meeting after that. If the vacancy begins less than three meetings before the scheduled end of the officer's term, a temporary replacement may be solicited by the President or the Constitution, Bylaws, Resolutions, Nominations and Elections Committee and presented for election by a majority vote of the Senators present at the next Senate meeting. If the President leaves office, then the President-elect will become President and serve as President for the remainder of that year as well as the following year as stipulated in Article II Section 1 of the Bylaws.

Article V. Committees.

Section 1. Formation. In accordance with Article II Section 1 Subparagraphs D and J of the Bylaws, the President of the Senate shall appoint members to all standing and ad hoc committees of the Senate. A Senator shall not be a member of more than one standing committee of the Senate. Each standing and ad hoc committee of the Senate shall have the authority to appoint non-Senate members of the LSUHSC-NO General Faculty to serve on its committee. The Senate President will appoint the chairperson of each committee of the Senate from among the Senate members of the committee.

Section 2. Standing Committees of the Senate.

- A. Professional Rights, Responsibilities, and Faculty Welfare Committee of the Senate shall consider, make recommendations on, and report to the Senate on matters pertaining to academic freedom, academic fairness, and professional ethics in any area appropriate to its purview. It shall also consider, make recommendations on, and report to the Senate on matters pertaining to faculty welfare, benefits, and programs in any area appropriate to its purview.
- B. Research Committee of the Senate shall consider, make recommendations on, and report to the Senate on matters pertaining to LSUHSC-NO research studies (clinical, applied, and basic science), space, funding and programs in any area appropriate to its purview.
- C. Education, Service, and Patient Care Committee of the Senate shall consider, make recommendations on, and report to the Senate on matters pertaining to LSUHSC-NO education, service, patient care and programs in any area appropriate to its purview.
- D. Constitution, Bylaws, Resolutions, Nominations and Elections Committee of the Senate shall consider and recommend to the Senate resolutions concerning matters of general interest to LSUHSC-NO faculty. It shall further consider, make recommendations on, and report to the Senate on matters pertaining to the amendment of the Constitution and Bylaws. It shall also organize a subcommittee of Senate members who are not candidates for reelection that shall propose a slate of officers for election for the upcoming year.
- E. Facilities, Safety, and Security Committee shall consider, make recommendations on, and report to the Senate on matters pertaining to the physical plant and safety and security of the LSU Health Sciences Center-NO.
- F. Electronic Communications Committee shall be responsible for maintaining information on the Faculty Senate Website.
- G. Committee Coordinating Committee of the Senate shall maintain oversight of the structure, activities, and effectiveness of Senate and LSUHSC-NO-wide committees and councils in relation to responsibilities of the Faculty Senate. The Committee shall consult with and make recommendations to the Senate President regarding membership of standing and ad

298 hoc committees of the Senate. It shall identify University-wide standing or ad hoc 299 committees that include or appear relevant for inclusion of Faculty Senate-appointed 300 representatives. In coordination with the Senate as a whole, the Committee will recommend 301 faculty for LSUHSC-wide standing and ad hoc committees to the Chancellor. It shall 302 monitor the proceedings of University-wide committees and report relevant activities and 303 developments to the Senate. It shall also periodically review the activities and function of 304 LSUHSC-wide and Senate committees and recommend changes in the configuration,
 305 structure or number of such committees as it deems appropriate.
 306

Article VI. Meetings.

307
 308 Section 1. Regular Meetings. The first regular meeting of the Senate shall be held in July unless the 309 Senate votes to recess until the August meeting. Other regular meetings shall be held 310 pursuant to Article V. Section 1 of the Constitution.

311 Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Senate may be called by the Secretary at the request
 312 of the President of the Senate or upon the written request of 25% of the Senators.

313 Section 3. Quorum. A simple majority (16) of Senators, including at least one representative from each
 314 Faculty Organization shall be required to conduct business at any meeting of the Senate.

315 Section 4. Minutes. A complete and permanent set of minutes of each meeting shall be kept by the 316 Secretary.

317 Section 5. Guests. Meetings of the Senate shall be open. The Senate may choose to go into executive
 318 session by a majority vote of the members present for a specific purpose allowed by law. A
 319 member of the General Faculty may “at the request of a Senator” be allowed to address the 320 Senate for a specific purpose for no more than ten minutes. The Chancellor of LSUHSC-
 321 NO, or his/her designated representative, or any person not a member of the General
 322 Faculty, may address the Senate subject to the approval of a majority of those present.

323 Section 6. Conduct of Meetings. The conduct of Senate business shall be in accordance with Robert’s
 324 Rules of Order (Revised).

325 Section 7. Order of Business. The order of business at Senate meetings shall be as follows:

- 326 A. Call to Order
- 327 B. Roll Call
- 328 C. Approval of Minutes
- 329 D. Unfinished Business
- 330 E. New Business
- 331 F. Reports of Committees of the Senate
- 332 G. Reports of the Faculty Representative and/or Alternate
- 333 H. Announcements
- 334 I. Adjournment

335 Section 8. Procedures on Proposals other than Amendments. The following procedures shall be used
 336 for all proposals to the Senate:

- 337 A. Proposals for consideration by the Senate must be submitted in writing to the Executive 338 Committee at least two weeks before the next scheduled meeting of the Senate. This 339 provision may be waived only if the Executive Committee interprets a proposal to be an 340 emergency.
- 341 B. Each new proposal shall be read to the Senate during the portion of the meeting devoted to new 342 business.
- 343 C. After each proposal is read, the Senate shall consider the question of sending the proposal to a
 344 standing committee of the Senate. Debate on the question shall be limited to five minutes 345 for proponents and five minutes for opponents.
- 346 D. If a majority of the Senate present approve, the President shall assign the proposal to the 347 appropriate committee of the Senate. If less than a majority of the Senators present 348 approve, the proposal shall be dropped.

- 349 E. At the next meeting of the Senate, the appropriate committee of the Senate shall make a full 350 report of its studies on the proposal and state any alterations or objections that it feels 351 advisable to make.
- 352 F. After the appropriate committee of the Senate has completed its report, the Senate shall debate
353 the question of adopting the proposed recommendation. Amendments may be submitted 354 from the floor.
- 355 G. The failure of a committee of the Senate to make a report at its appointed time shall not 356 preclude the right of the Senate at that time to move, debate, adopt, or reject the proposed 357 recommendation or a variation of it.
- 358 H. A proposed recommendation shall not be adopted as a recommendation of the Senate unless it 359 receives the vote of a majority of the Senators present.
- 360 I. A minority report may be filed by a Senator(s) who does not vote with the majority.
- 361 J. If the Executive Committee interprets a proposal to be an emergency, the proposal need not 362 be referred to committee, and a recommendation may be introduced, drafted, and 363 adopted during the same meeting at which it was proposed. If passage before the next 364 scheduled meeting is critical, the process may proceed electronically (see Section 9).
- 365 K. The Chancellor or his designate, at his discretion, may submit items to the Senate for 366 discussion and/or request to address the Senate.

367 Section 9. Voting Procedures. Voting shall be by show of hands or without objection at all in-person
368 meetings. A roll call vote is required when requested by any Senator. A secret ballot
369 requires a majority vote of the Senate. If the Executive Committee unanimously deems 370 an issue to be an emergency, a proposal may be introduced, drafted, discussed, and 371 voted upon electronically between Senate meetings. At least five business days must be 372 allowed for voting following circulation of such a proposal, and passage requires a vote
373 in favor by a majority of the total Senate. In addition, any Senator may table voting on 374 the proposal until the next Senate meeting.

375
376

377 Article VII. Amendments.

378 Section 1. Amendments to this Constitution or its Bylaws shall be made at regular meetings of the 379 Senate.

380 Section 2. The following procedure shall be used when the Constitution, Bylaws, Resolutions,
381 Nominations and Elections Committee determines after due deliberation that an 382 amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws is needed:

- 383 A. The general nature of the proposed amendment shall be announced to the Senate and an 384 affirmative vote obtained from a majority of the Senators present in order to proceed.
- 385 B. At the next meeting of the Senate, the Committee shall present a draft of the proposed 386 amendment and the rationale behind it, after which the Senate shall debate the proposal.
387 Amendments to the proposal may be submitted from the floor.
- 388 C. A draft incorporating any necessary changes raised in the discussion will be circulated to 389 the entire Senate and the President of each School's Faculty Assembly at least two 390 weeks prior to the meeting at which any voting on the amendment is to occur.
- 391 D. At the next meeting of the Senate, the Senate shall debate the question of adopting the 392 amendment. Modifications to the proposal may be submitted from the floor.
- 393 E. After debate, the proposal shall require a two-thirds vote of the total Senate membership to 394 be enacted.

395 Section 3. The following procedure shall be used for any individual Senator to directly propose an 396 amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws:

- 397 A. To propose an amendment, a Senator must notify the Secretary of his/her intentions in 398 writing at least three weeks prior to the next regular meeting. A copy of the proposal 399 shall be included in the call for the next regular meeting and a copy shall be sent to the 400 President of each School's Faculty Assembly at least ten days prior to the next meeting.
- 401 B. At the next regular meeting, the President of the Senate shall read the proposal and call for 402 preliminary debate that shall be limited to five minutes for proponents and five minutes
403 for opponents.
- 404 C. For the proposal to be admitted for further consideration after preliminary debate it must 405 be supported by a simple majority of the Senators present, pursuant to Article X, Section
406 I of the Constitution. Without this support, the proposal shall die for lack of support.
- 407 D. Upon a proposal's being admitted for further consideration, the President of the Senate
408 shall refer the proposal to the Constitution, Bylaws, Resolutions, Nominations and 409 Elections Committee of the Senate for further study.
- 410 E. At the next meeting of the Senate, the Committee shall make a full report of its studies on 411 the proposal and state any alterations or objections that it feels advisable to make.
- 412 F. After the Committee has completed its report, the Senate shall debate the question of 413 adopting the proposal. Amendments to the proposal may be submitted from the floor.
- 414 G. The failure of the Committee to make its report at the appointed time shall not preclude 415 the right of the Senate at that time to move, debate, adopt, or reject the proposal or a 416 variation of it.
- 417 H. After debate, the proposal shall require a two-thirds vote of the total Senate membership 418 to be enacted.
