

LSU Health New Orleans

HEALTH SCIENCES CENTER

The Interprofessional Student Alliance is an organization of students from across the health sciences center who work within the community in service and leadership. IPSA encourages representation and participation from all 6 professional programs at LSUHSC. As a student run-organization, IPSA has 7 programs that work in the New Orleans region to enact change in the health of the community.

New Orleans Adolescent Reproductive Health Project (NOARHP):

Are you interested in helping young people in your community understand their bodies, autonomy, and respect for differences? Have you thought about bringing comprehensive sex education to adolescents in our area? NOARHP agrees that these concepts are key to allowing students to develop healthy relationships with their bodies and others. They bring a comprehensive, age appropriate curriculum we bring into schools who share this belief.

If you would like to volunteer and become a member, please feel free to reach out to Liz Brew (ebrew@lsuhsc.edu) or Judston Robinson (jrob36@lsuhsc.edu)

Sling Health Nola:

Formerly known as NOMI, Sling Health NOLA is a medical engineering design incubator created by LSUHSC and other university students in order to solve real world clinical problems. Although they do not have any events for the month of October, they are always seeking new members and fresh faces. For more information visit the following website: <https://www.lsuhs.edu/administration/academic/cipecp/nomi.aspx>
