Bazan awarded nearly $1 M by EENT Foundation

Before a crowd of Neuroscience Center faculty, postdocs, staff, and students, the EENT Foundation presented Dr. Nicolas Bazan with a check for $850,000 yesterday. The money will be used to purchase two Mass Spectrometers and related equipment for use in scientific research and development at the Neuroscience Center.

The equipment will support Dr. Bazan's work in retinal degeneration, and this gift is the latest in a series that the EENT Foundation has made to advance Dr. Bazan's research on this devastating condition.

Nicolas G. Bazan, M.D., Ph. D., LHH, Joseph Moerschbaecher, Ph. D., Steven Nelson, M.D., Mr. St. Denis (Sandy)Villere, Mr. John Charbonnet, Dr. George Monsted, and Mr. William Finegan

We are most grateful for the longstanding support of the EENT Foundation and for its continuing generosity.

Allied Health coats doctoral audiology students

The Doctor of Audiology classes of 2010 and 2011 received their white coats at a ceremony this afternoon, as their families and loved ones looked on. Following welcoming remarks by Dean Jimmy Cairo, PhD, and Audiology faculty, Tammy Crabtree, MCD, Program Director Dr. Barbara Wendt-Harris helped fourteen students don the symbol of their entry into clinical care.

The coats and pins were provided by the Audiology Foundation of America.

Class of 2010 – Melody Benedic, Amy Boudin, Pamela Key, JJ Martinez, Misty Ringe, Brenda Swain, Kelly Vermeeren.
Class of 2011 – Rachel Fitzmorris, Danielle Gautreaux, Emily Heath, Allison McKenzie, Christina Primo, Megan Pollman, Alaina Waller

Congratulations to all!

Chiche to be honored nationally

Dr. Gerry Chiche will be the recipient of the 2007 Greater New York Academy of Prosthodontics Foundation Distinguished Lecturer Award. The award will be presented by the Greater New York Academy of Prosthodontics on December 1, 2007 in New York City. The award, inaugurated in 1979, recognizes one of the outstanding speakers in Prosthodontics and previous recipients include some of the most distinguished names in the discipline.

Membership in the organization is by invitation, and is not confined to the New York area. Winners of these awards are highly motivated, members of the prosthodontic profession who are honored to receive recognition from this internationally prestigious and elite organization.

Congratulations, Gerry!
