THE OATH OF HIPPOCRATES

I do solemnly swear by whatever I hold most sacred, that I will be loyal to the profession of medicine and will be just and generous to its members and will teach those who follow after me in this profession.

That I will lead my life and practice my art in uprightness and honor.

That into whatever home I shall enter, it shall be for the good of the sick and of the well and to the utmost of my power I will hold myself aloof from wrong and from corruption and from tempting others to vice.

That I will exercise my art solely for the cure of my patients and for the prevention of disease. I will give no drug or perform no operation for a criminal purpose, and will never recommend such a thing.

That whatever I shall see or hear that concerns the lives of my patients which is not fitting to be spoken, I will keep forever secret.

These things I do promise in proportion to the degree that I am faithful to this oath, may happiness and good repute be ever mine, and may the opposite befall me if I am false to my word.
